Invitation to the 70th TID 2027

Dear Danube enthusiasts, dear TID-family,

We are eagerly anticipating a very special anniversary, namely the 70. Tour Internationale Danubien! It will be another journey full of new friendships, shared experiences and the unique magic of the Danube.

The timetable for the tour was decided at the TID-conference in Vienna, Austria in early October 2026. The tour starts on the 26th of June 2027 in Ingolstadt, Germany, and ends on the 4th on September 2027 in Brăila, Romania. There is also a pre-tour on the Danube from Ulm to Ingolstadt in Germany in June 2027.

The country organizers had wished to include the whole of Romania, however due to the proximity of the Ukraine and the ongoing security situation there, it was decided to finish in Brăila at kilometer 172, about 40 km short of the Ukrainian border. The rest of the tour remains unaffected. The Bulgarian rest day will probably be in Ruse once again.

There will be a slight increase in participation fees in some countries in 2027.

Life jackets or buoyancy aids must be carried throughout the whole tour and they must be worn where needed or when instructed to do.

Over the last few years, the bus transfers have been very successful. In 2027, should there be enough interest, we plan to run a bus to and from Coswig/Anhalt via Leipzig, Germany to Vidin, Bulgaria. This will be in addition to the bus from Coswig via Leipzig to Ingolstadt (i.e. the start of the TID).
The departure and arrival times are subject to change. You'll find the latest news on our homepage. These good transfer options allow you to subdivide the tour into stages of between two to four weeks. This is ideal for anyone who would like to incorporate the TID into their holiday plans.

Registration for the entire tour and either of its legs is from the 18th of January to the 30th of April 2027 via our homepage https://tour-international-danubien.info/. Registration for the return transfer from Brăila, Romania, ends on the 28th of February 2027.

We are looking forward to your registration for the tour – and then of getting to know you – or seeing you on the tour again. We'll surely experience an unforgettable Tour Internationale Danubien 2027.

Please feel free to contact +49 178 3022475 on Wednesdays from 7 – 9 pm.

See you in Ingolstadt this June!
